Major ~~Part~~ B for March 1893

SUBJECT.

Appointment of a Short-hand Writer to the Municipal Council Bangalore.

Inward

8/3

note

The President proposes to ascertain a short hand writer's services at the rate of 15 Rs for each report of a municipal meeting. This would give the reporter who is an official in the Secretariat office 15 Rs a month in respect of the ordinary meetings. I think this would be quite sufficient without paying separately for reporting extraordinary meetings which are generally held to consider a few urgent matters not disposed of in the regular monthly meetings.

Secy to Govt

N. Govt do not consider that the employment of a short hand writer is necessary, or declined to sanction the proposal.

I beg to recommend that A. V. Swami-nada Iyer, phonographer, Dewan office be engaged for reporting our meetings. He is a very expert Short-hand writer and I enclose Specimen of his ability in this line, taken down verbatim fro. a conversation I held with my head clerk — An allowance of Rs 15/ per meting would I think be agreed to by Mr Swaminada Iyer.

Sir,

With reference to Govern-ment Proceedings No 12135 dated
27. 188-93
29th January/94 observing that the services of a short-hand writer is not necessary, I have the honor to state that in accordance with the suggestion conveyed in Go of Government Proceedings No. 12027/17 1177 dated 28th January 192 a short-hand reporter has been employed

2. In every meeting questions of importance are brought forward and discussed. If the order of Government is to be carried out a short-hand reporter is absolutely necessary and in fact the action taken by the Board is in compliance with the recommendation of the Government that the practice obtaining at the Station Municipality might be followed

3. A short-hand reporter has been employed from the 28th of August and he has been paid Rs 120/ at the rate of Rs 15/ for

4. I beg therefore that you will move the Government to reconsider the order.
